

As the end of 2010 approaches we would like to thank everyone who has supported SiNGA, making our programs and outreach possible.

This year, through our Summer Youth Employment Passport-To-Work program we've provided 100 youths with an environment designed to nurture their creative talents and learn economic self-sufficiency. During their 6 weeks with us, they received training in the following areas, culminating in selling their products at Eastern Market:

- Graphic & Fashion Design
- Garment/Product Development
- Computer Training
- Textile Design
- Fitness/Wellness
- Job Training
- Entrepreneurship

In addition, we've provided four (8-10 weeks) evening sewing class sessions to the DMV sewing enthusiast community this year. Our next session will begin mid-January 2011. To see the classes offered and to get your registration form go to our website: www.singainc.org. Register early to hold your seat.

To see the students from the 2010 summer program and the evening classes in action, please see the attached slideshow: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R2gLvbnLR94&list=ULQMnxd9ulW-M&playnext=1>

Looking forward to 2011, our strategic plan is to implement our long anticipated designer incubator program, creating an environment for local, professional fashion designers where they can network, create and master their craft. We will also be launching our sewing services, providing employment opportunities for students who have succeeded within our programs and others in the local DMV marketplace. Teaching others how to create a livelihood and earn income to sustain themselves is a goal we hold and hope you will share.

We recognize our economy is currently impaired, but we are still the gate keepers of our community. As you plan your year-end giving, we hope you will keep SiNGA in mind so we may continue and grow our programs. Whatever you can give will be appreciated.

On behalf of our Board of Directors, and Staff we wish you good health, safety, peace, joy and prosperity now and throughout the entire New Year. We look forward to working with you during the New Year.

Sincerely yours,
Jackie Hart
